A word from former participants

"This weekend has literally changed my life."

"I was ill-equipped to deal with the loss of a dying relationship. Now I know I am beginning to heal & grow from the experience."

"I was so impressed by the "servant hearts" of everyone concerned. I felt honored & cared about."

"I learned that people do care about me even if I am divorced. It was an awesome experience!"

"Great classroom work, tremendous support & excellent teachers."

"The facilitators did a great job and the presenters were fantastic!"

"The Team of Hope facilitates the workshop along with qualified speakers and pastors of the church. These persons have healed from their experiences of loss & want to pass on the gentle support and loving care that was shared with them."

Regardless of where you are in your journey when you begin this weekend, you will leave with a different attitude. You will have a network of caring people who will be available if the need arises. You will find people at this workshop who have a real "heart" for the struggles you are facing. Professionals & lay people who have personal knowledge of the heartache and loneliness of divorce will guide you through this weekend.

The format includes brief presentations by experts on various topics, followed by discussion in small intimate groups. In addition to the topics usually covered in a program of this nature -

You can expect.....

- Friday night mixer cookout
- Saturday morning mixer breakfast
- Visual representations on the process of healing
- Concrete tools for rebuilding relationships
- Elegant Sunday night dinner

AND

Constant affirmation & Fellowship

This is an intense program designed to be most effective when taken in complete form. Please come prepared to give yourself to the whole process. If you miss even one event, you have missed an important part of the workshop. We will make an effort to assist you in completing the entire program.

Let us help you get the most out of your weekend.

"When I walked out the door of the church the last day, I felt I now had a basis for rebuilding my life."
